

Modules of Activity Tracker

GUI – Contains different frames and functionality of the GUI interface.

Manager – Contains the main functionalities of the program, including calculating the statistics and moving data.

User - Contains the classes that deal with user information.

Device – Contains the classes that deal with gathering the data from the activity tracking device or a given file.