

Features of the Activity Tracker

- 1) User can create an account, given their username is unique.
- 2) User can reset their account password if forgotten using a security question.
- 3) User can create a profile, and enter information such as name, age and height.
- 4) Able to connect an activity tracking device and upload data from it to the application.
- 5) User can view statistics that are created using their data.
- 6) User can add, delete or modify past activity data entered.
- 7) User can search for friends that use this application and add them to see their progress.
- 8) The user can choose to add friends and see their process on the application.